WASHINGTON GOSSIP.-The House is still ppressed with the suticipated burden of a surplus revenue of twenty millions. It sets upon them like a night-mare, but will be found to be a mare's-nest. There will be no such surplus, and nothing like it. The amount of the surplus revenue, after providing 1853, made by former vote of Congress, will "May i-i it please your honor, I have be only seven or eight millions, instead of
